

Danforth Art School Assistants gain experience in all aspects of Danforth Art School functions assisting with overall program facilitation during Fall, Winter and Spring school sessions, School Vacation Week Workshops for children and teens, and Summer Arts, our highly popular summer art classes for children and teens. Opportunities to assist in the school include preparation of materials and studio spaces, organization of supplies, support for teachers, and other administrative tasks. Danforth Art accepts responsible, reliable, and energetic applicants currently enrolled in high school (grades 9-12) or college for available School Assistantships year round.
