

Danforth Art School Assistants gain experience in all aspects of Danforth Art School, assisting with overall program facilitation during regular art school sessions (Fall, Winter, Spring) for all ages, School Vacation Week Workshops for children and teens, and Summer Arts, our highly popular summer art classes for children and teens. Opportunities to assist in the studios include preparation of materials and classroom spaces, organization of supplies, and support for teachers. Candidates with ceramics experience should note this on their applications. Danforth Art accepts responsible, reliable, and energetic applicants currently enrolled in high school (grades 9-12) or college for available School Assistantships year round.
