

Danforth Art is growing and we are looking for friendly and reliable volunteers who are interested in supporting the arts and their community. A broad range of volunteer opportunities are available. For detailed descriptions of available opportunities visit danforthart.org/volunteer.html. If you have other skills or community resources that you would like to share with the Museum, we invite you to explore how you might be of service. Hours and schedules are flexible, and training is provided. Volunteer positions are unpaid.

What to Expect

Many of our volunteer opportunities are offered during our regular museum hours. However some positions require weekend and evening hours, such as for special events. Volunteers will be provided with training and are encouraged to attend additional training opportunities to become familiar with museum exhibitions and programs. After a certain level of commitment volunteers will be offered a complimentary Danforth Art membership. All volunteers are required to undergo a background check.

How to Get Involved

Persons interested in becoming a Danforth Art volunteer should fill out a Volunteer Application and submit it along with a recent resume. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. All applicants will be asked to come to Danforth Art for an in-person interview with Danforth Art staff.
